

Advertisement for Non-Tenure Track Positions, School of Accountancy:

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY invites applications for multiple non-tenure track positions effective fall 2010. Areas of need include financial, managerial, auditing, tax, and accounting information systems. Rank is open but we expect to hire at the level of Clinical Assistant Professor (preferred) or Lecturer. Candidates for Clinical Assistant Professor must have a doctorate in Accounting (or related field) from an AACSB-accredited (or similarly accredited international) university or JD and graduate degree in tax/accounting (for teaching tax), demonstrated high-level classroom performance, significant professional experience, and the capability for publishing research in refereed journals. Expectations for Lecturer to teach tax are similar except highest degree may be a graduate degree in taxation from an AACSB-accredited university or JD with significant emphasis on taxation. Salaries are competitive. Positions are contingent on budget approval. To apply, letter of application, curriculum vitae, three recommendation letters, and evidence of classroom performance and publishing capability should be emailed (preferred) to SOAjobsNTT@gsu.edu or sent to Galen Sevcik, School of Accountancy, Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University, PO Box 4050, Atlanta, GA 30302-4050. Preference may be given to applications received by September 30, 2009. Georgia State University is an Equal Opportunity Educational Institution/Affirmative Action Employer.

Advertisement for Tenure-Track Positions, School of Accountancy:

GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY invites applications for multiple tenure-track positions effective fall 2010. Areas of need are financial, managerial, auditing, tax, and accounting information systems. Rank is open but we expect to hire at the assistant professor level. Candidates must have a doctorate in Accounting (or related field) from an AACSB accredited (or similarly accredited international) university or JD and graduate degree in tax/accounting (for teaching tax) and high potential for strong publication and teaching. Candidates for associate professor should have a national reputation based on current research record in top-quality journals. Salaries are competitive. Positions are contingent on budget approval. To apply, letter of application, curriculum vitae, examples of scholarly work, three recommendation letters, and evidence of classroom performance should be emailed (preferred) to SOAjobsTT@gsu.edu or sent to Galen Sevcik, School of Accountancy, Robinson College of Business, Georgia State University, PO Box 4050, Atlanta, GA 30302-4050. Preference may be given to applications received by November 1, 2009. Georgia State University is an Equal Opportunity Educational Institution/Affirmative Action Employer.