Membership Benefits

Corporate Memberships: Directors' Circle, Executive Circle and Shareholders' Circle.

With a corporate contribution of $5000 or more, members of these Circles are entitled to recognition at events and in the Center's printed materials; first refusal on sponsorship opportunities; and priority in scheduling presentations and workshops. In addition, all interested employees of the member organization are entitled to early notification and preferred registration for events or programs; and the e-mail distribution of the GoodBusiness online journal. Please contact us for further information about additional benefits available with membership in each of these Circles.

Individual Memberships: Benefactor, Sustainer, Patron, Contributor, Supporter and

Friend of the Center. An individual membership provides benefits including early notification and preferred registration to attend events or programs; the e-mail distribution of the GoodBusiness online journal; and recognition in the Center's printed materials for the individual contributor.

All contributions should be made payable to The Georgia State University Foundation. Please designate the gift for The Center for Ethics and Corporate Responsibility. The Georgia State University Foundation, Inc. is an independent, non-profit, tax-exempt charity incorporated in Georgia under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. A gift to the Georgia State University Foundation is tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. Your involvement and contribution make it possible to provide a variety of valuable programs and services in our community throughout the year.
